Contents

List of Illustrations vii
Acknowledgements viii
Abbreviations ix
A Note on Dates xi
Pratt Family Tree xii–xiii
Introduction 1
Editorial conventions 49

1. Dramatic Writings 53
   The Grange 55
   An Occasional Prologue to The Clandestine Marriage (Print Version) 123
2. Longer Poems 127
   The Inundation or the Life of a Fen-Man 129
   The Coal-Heavers 149
   September: A Rural Poem 165
3. Shorter Poems 207
   'Grunnelia or the Sow in the Dumps' 209
   'The Death of the Woodcock' 215
   Two Squibs on the Norfolk Election 217
      a) A Mock Newspaper Article on the Canvassing at Downham Market 218
      b) 'Mr. Anti-Puff' 219
   Cinderetta 221
   Mr. and Mrs. Clagett's Epitaph (Monumental Inscription) 225
   'If tis no Crime to Give the Just Applause' 227
   'Political Duck-Hunting' (Newspaper Version) 231

'The Sunday Visit' (Newspaper Version) 235
'Watlington, November 16, 1781' 239
'To Christopher Anstey' 243
'To N. S.' 247
'The Jay a Fable' 251
'Give up the world?—By Heaven not I' 255
'A Hint for the Year' 259
4. Longer Prose Writings 261
The Zgubbs 263
A Modest Address to Lewis Lord Bishop of Norwich 301
5. Shorter Prose Writings 323
'Constitutional Queries' 325
'Thoughts on Repentance' and 'A Prayer to be Used Any Time of the Day' 329

Appendices
1. Two Replies to Pratt's Two Squibs on the Norfolk Election 337
a) Letter to Replying to Pratt's Mock Newspaper Article on the Canvassing for the 1768 Norfolk Election 338
b) 'To Mr. Ranti-Puff' 339
2. Mr. and Mrs. Clagett's Epitaph (Manuscript Version) 345
3. Prologue to The Clandestine Marriage (Manuscript Version) 346
4. 'Political Duck-Hunting' (Manuscript Version) 349
5. 'The Sunday Visit' (Manuscript Version) 352
6. Letter from Charles Davy to Jermyn Pratt 359
7. Catalogue of Jermyn Pratt's Library 364

Select Bibliography 389
Index 393